

Centeron Webview System Schneider Electric Privacy Notice

1. Who is responsible for processing your data

Schneider Electric Systems USA, Inc; 1602 Mustang Drive Maryville, TN 37801 acts as data controller and determines the means and purposes of the data processing activities.

2. What personal information we process

When you use the Centeron Webview System the following information will be processed:

- First / Last Name
- Email Address
- Phone Number
- Credential Information
- Company Name
- Company Address
- User Activity on the site (e.g., commands, login/logout time stamps, updates to system objects)

We can obtain this information from your company's administrator, sales representative or tech support person that sets up your account.

All the information we process is strictly necessary for the purposes detailed below. Without it the Centeron Webview System cannot function properly.

3. Why do we process the data

We use the above-mentioned information based on the contract between your company and Schneider Electric and for the following specified and legitimate purposes:

- To manage your account. When you register, we use your personal information to give you access to digital content and our services, authenticate you and interact with you about it.
- To improve our products, services and digital content; for instance we analyze the use of our applications and sites in order to identify areas and functionalities where users have difficulties and we redesign them

We rely on simple and informed consent if your personal data is used for marketing and advertising purposes in addition to those listed above. Your account is set to NOT receive marketing communications by default, so we will only include you in these communications if you update your account and indicate that you would like to be included on these messages.

4. Who we share personal information with

Schneider Electric is a global company, with legal entities, business processes, management organizations, and a system infrastructure that crosses borders. We transfer data to subsidiaries and service providers located outside of the EU/EEA, including in the USA. We ensure that transfers comply with legal requirements, for example, by executing Standard Contractual Clauses or through our Binding Corporate Rules for intragroup transfers as a data controller. To obtain more details on these transfers and copies of the applicable safeguards put into place, you may contact Global-Data-Privacy@schneider-electric.com

Please be advised that the Centeron Webview system is a global platform accessible from all countries. When you publish information and make it accessible publicly or privately to other users (including external partners authorized to access the Centeron Webview system, if applicable) these users might be located outside the EU/EEA.

Schneider Electric does not sell or disclose your personal data to third parties for direct marketing, market research, polls or public registers without your consent. Schneider Electric may share your personal data with select third parties for backup purposes only.

5. How long we keep personal information

The personal data we collect is retained for the period necessary to fulfil the purposes outlined in this the Terms and Conditions of the Service, unless longer retention period is required by law; or Schneider Electric needs the data for drafting or presenting a claim, for a legal defense, or for resolving a dispute of a similar nature. Primarily, the personal data will be processed for the duration of the customer and contractual relationship and for a necessary time after the end of the customer and contractual relationship.

When personal data is no longer needed, it will be deleted within 6 months after your company discontinues use of the system.

6. How to access and edit personal information

You can access and amend any information that you have entered directly through Centeron Webview. If you have other questions and requests, including how to receive a copy of your information, or how to delete your account, you may contact Schneider Electric at support.centeron@schneider-electric.com

Notice for residents of the EU/EEA: you benefit from rights to request erasure or restriction of your personal information, and you can object to the processing of personal information on grounds relating to your particular situation when the processing is justified by our legitimate interest. Please note that these rights do not apply in all circumstances. Please do not hesitate to get in touch with Schneider Electric at support.centeron@schneider-electric.com

11. Contact us

If you have any questions or suggestions on this Privacy Notice, or if you believe we might have processed your personal information in violation of applicable law please contact the Schneider Electric Data Protection Officer. You may also lodge a complaint with the supervisory authority of your country. The supervisory authority for Schneider Electric is the CNIL in France.
